

Veterans Health Administration

“ My work improves the lives of those who have sacrificed so much for me and for all of us—
Veterans and their families. ”

Marriage and Family Therapists

VA is hiring. Veterans returning home from conflict face many challenges in the transition to civilian life, including reintegrating back into their families. The Department of Veteran affairs is dedicated to hiring highly qualified mental health practitioners to provide the expert care Servicemembers have earned. VA employment offers marriage and family therapists the chance to work with Veterans to help them get back the lives they deserve.

Benefits Include:

- Unique patient population
- Evidence-based care focused on providing holistic treatment for Veterans
- Federal employee benefits package and competitive salaries
- State-of-the-art integrated health care system and facilities

VA's unique patient population provides an opportunity to put your skills to full use in support of those who have served our country. VA mental health professionals work with Veterans of all ages, from the oldest men and women to those from recent conflicts. Specialized services geared toward women address the needs of the fastest-growing Veteran population.

Along with competitive salaries and a world-class package of benefits, a career with VA offers a healthy balance between your personal life and the meaningful work you'll have the chance to do at VA.

Go online to connect with a VA recruiter today:

<http://www.vacareers.va.gov/mental-health/>

Connect with VA Careers on our Twitter and Facebook pages to learn more about the opportunities at VA.

VA Careers <https://www.facebook.com/vacareers>

@vacareers <https://twitter.com/vacareers>

VA is an equal opportunity employer.