“ Working for VA gives me flexibility that fits both my professional and personal needs. ”

Psychiatric Nurses

VA is hiring. An effective staff starts with each person having a healthy balance between meaningful work and personal life. The Department of Veterans Affairs provides employees that balance, offering fair hours and flexible work schedule that are unmatched in the private sector. Working at VA lets you establish that equilibrium and be fulfilled both personally and professionally.

Benefits Include:

- Healthy balance between work and personal life
- Federal employee benefits package and competitive salary
- Evidence-based care focused on providing holistic treatment for Veterans
- Unique patient population

VA's unique patient population provides an opportunity to put your skills to full use in support of those who have served our country. VA mental health professionals work with Veterans of all ages, from the oldest men and women to those from recent conflicts. Specialized services geared toward women address the needs of the fastest-growing Veteran population.

Along with competitive salaries and a world-class package of benefits, a career with VA offers the opportunity to develop your skills and leadership abilities so you can advance your career.
