I served in the military. Now I work to give the quality care that my fellow Veterans need and deserve.
United by passion.
Fueled by purpose.

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) is the largest, most technologically advanced health care system in the United States. We've grown from 54 domestic hospitals in 1930, to over 1,200 VA health care facilities across the U.S., its territories and possessions, and the Philippines. We strive to provide a professional, supportive environment where our patients—and you—can thrive.

When you join us, you'll receive a robust compensation package—competitive salaries, first-rate employment benefits, extensive education support, tuition reimbursement programs, nationwide job transfer opportunities, generous paid leave, and a variety of programs to help guide your professional growth and advancement.

But VA also has something that no other health care system can offer: the opportunity to serve our Nation’s Veterans.

Continue to share your camaraderie of service.

As a former military member, you have a deep understanding of Veterans that is unmatched by civilian professionals. Such shared experience—with both your fellow Veteran colleagues and our patient population—will allow you to excel both personally and professionally at VA. You’ll find opportunities in more than 300 disciplines, including Accounting, Contracts, Finance, Information Technology, Human Resources, and many more. And with the size and scope of VA’s health care system, you have the freedom to exchange best practices with other professionals in our network.

Come meet our extraordinary patients ... they’ll show you why a VA career is so rewarding.

You’ll find that the bond our patients have for one another is extended to VA professionals. From injured active-duty personnel to Veterans of all ages, our patients rely on dedicated VA employees to deliver unique and resourceful solutions. The skills you learned in the military—dedication, initiative, teamwork—can help your fellow Veterans get back to living rich, fulfilling lives.

As a result, the entire VA care team receives the deepest appreciation from the many brave, grateful individuals who—like you—have served our Nation.

Lifetime of learning.

To help you advance your career as you address the needs of America’s Veterans, VA provides robust continuing-education opportunities and exceptional programs for training and leadership development, including:

- Tuition Support Program: Receive funding to enroll in job-related courses for health care disciplines that are in high demand.
- Employee Education System: Improve your work performance through educational courses, instructor-led classes, or online training.
- Employee Incentive Scholarship Program: A program allowing VHA employees to further their education and obtain degrees qualifying them for health care positions for which recruitment and retention is difficult.

Work anywhere—and take your benefits with you.

Mobility is one of the great advantages of being part of VHA. You can work in any of our advanced facilities in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, and the Philippines. Best of all: when you transfer to a location where there is an available position, you won’t lose any benefits, vacation accrual, or—in most cases—your current salary rate. Some VHA facilities are even authorized to pay relocation if there is a high need to fill a position.

Whether you want to enjoy living by the beach, near the countryside, or in a bustling metropolis, chances are you’ll find a VHA facility nearby.

“To care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow, and his orphan.”

— Abraham Lincoln

These words became the motto of the Department of Veterans Affairs, and they are inscribed on the front of our headquarters.
